STEPEVI presents Fade Collection

STEPEVI, the pioneering contemporary luxury-rug company showcases two exclusive collections: Fade and Zigzag during Maison & Objet Paris 2014.

A carpet is more than merely a decorative element: it is an awakening of the senses, a feast for both the eyes and the skin adding an important aesthetic feature into a room. Inspired by the latest fashion colors and textures, STEPEVI rugs successfully achieve to bring a new dimension into the spaces they are used in.

STEPEVI's brand new product, the glamorous Fade is made of the brand's signature composition Star Wool & Viscose, which is an exclusive blend. The durability of Wool is fused with the softness and luminosity of the Viscose.
